

OPEN CALL 2017 Art Residency ECHANGEUR22

ECHANGEUR22

is a non-profit association that supports emerging contemporary artists along with a residency programme that aims to bring together artists from different countries and cultures, with a focus on encouraging artistic encounters.

The objective of the residency is to encourage artists who share a common language to create or experiment together. It offers them technical and financial means to test, produce and develop new ideas with a trans-cultural dimension, while establishing strong links with the host area through various activities, such as workshops and public conferences.

LA RESIDENCE

ECHANGEUR22 launches its 3rd edition of art residence.

L'ECHANGEUR22 will host 4 residents simultaneously 3 artists minimum and one author or curator or critic.

One or two French candidates will be selected.

One or two Japanese candidates will be selected.

One or two Brazilian candidates will be selected.

A residency for creation and experimentation Residencies focusing on creation and experimentation provide artists or groups of artists from different cultures and disciplines with technical means to create and produce new art, conduct original research, and engage with the public through presentations that showcase the various stages of the creative process leading up to a finished work.

THEMATIC: MOBILITY

During the residency, artists will be asked to question their own work according to the notion of circulation and mobility in art.

CONDITIONS:

The residency is for professional, established or young artists in the following disciplines: Digital/sound art, visual art, art criticism/curators.

Period of residence: June-July or September-October, according to artists' calendar

Duration: 6 weeks, artists planning to work in pairs or groups of three must be co-resident for at least 4 weeks during their residency period.

They benefit:

With a budget of 1000 euros of production for the period of residence (under condition of obtaining subsidy)

Accommodation in an artist's workshop (see website)

A transportation allowance (reimbursement of actual costs on presentation of invoices).

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Once selected, the reciprocal commitments between the association and the residents will be determined by a convention.

Resident contributions:

To present his work, at the beginning of the stay

To take part of a workshop project (half-day participatory workshop), during the stay

To participate in an open-studio day at the end of residence.

The association provides regular support to each artist by accompanying him in the follow-up of production. It informs it of the cultural resources (festivals, foundations, museums) and material resources (specificities of the productions) of the region and facilitates access to it.

It offers regular meetings with the curators: Viviana Birolli (fr), Fabiana de Moraes and Tamura masashimi (jp).

Technical assistance can be envisaged within the limits of the means of the structure.
